NAIPUNNYA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, CHERTHALA

Guidelines for Students and Faculty on SWAYAM/NPTEL Course Registration (July–December 2026 Semester)

Introduction

SWAYAM (Study Webs of Active Learning for Young Aspiring Minds) is the Government of India's national online learning platform developed by the Ministry of Education. It offers high-quality online courses from leading institutions such as IITs, IIMs, Central Universities, IGNOU, AICTE, CEC, NITTTR and other National Coordinators. SWAYAM enables students to learn from expert faculty, enhance their knowledge, and earn academic credits through online learning. (Swayam)

As per the UGC (Credit Framework for Online Learning Courses through SWAYAM) Regulations, Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) may permit students to earn up to 40% of the total semester credits through SWAYAM online courses, subject to institutional approval. (UGC)

Institutional Policy (Effective from July–December 2026 Semester)

To promote digital learning and multidisciplinary education in line with NEP 2020 and UGC guidelines, Naipunnnya School of Management has resolved that:

Every student shall successfully complete a minimum of TWO (2) SWAYAM/NPTEL courses carrying a combined minimum of FOUR (4) credits in each semester.

Successful completion of the prescribed SWAYAM/NPTEL courses is mandatory for all students. To encourage active participation and promote a culture of continuous learning, the student and faculty member who earn the highest number of SWAYAM/NPTEL credits in each semester will be recognized and honoured by the Executive Director with a Certificate of Excellence and a Cash Award, subject to verification of successfully completed and certified courses.
