It whispers tales of sunlit dawn,
Of gardens where laughter takes its flight,
Of burdens gently lifted, gone,
And paths bathed in a gentle light.

Hope, a seedling, fragile, brave,
Pushing through the frosted ground,
Trusting whispers of the wave,
And dreams in seeds of beauty found.

Though shadows lengthen, stars still hide,
And echoes whisper doubt and fear,
A flicker dances, deep inside,
A candle lit, though dim and near.

So hold it close, this tender spark,
Let it warm your weary soul,
Believe, even in the dark,
Hope's flame will make you whole.
