

BEST COLLEGE IN KERALA AWARD BY – PT CHACKO FOUNDATION

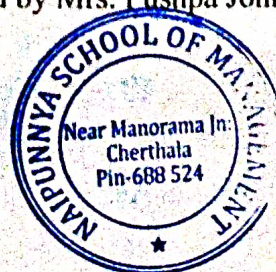

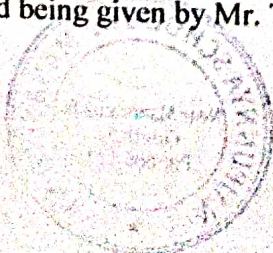

Report

P. T. Chacko (9 April 1915 – 31 July 1964), in full Pulloli Thomas Chacko, was an Indian politician from Kottayam in central Kerala. A member of the Travancore and Travancore-Cochin Assemblies and the Constituent Assembly, Chacko served as the first Leader of Opposition of the newly formed state of Kerala (Namboodiripad ministry). He was also the Home Minister of Kerala holding the additional portfolios of Revenue and Law during the period 1960–64 (Pillai and Sankar ministries). Resignation of Chacko from Congress-led cabinet in 1964 resulted in the formation of the regional party Kerala Congress.^{en}

P T Chacko Foundation, evaluates the performance of self financing colleges in criteria's like employability of students , contribution of students to the society etc and they have awarded Naipunya School of Management as the best college in 2019. The Award was presented to the college by the Finance Minister Thomas Issac & Higher Education Minister C. Ravindranath. The award was given in the year 2019 to Naipunya School of Management by the then finance Minister of Kerala, Mr. T.M. Thomas Isaac. The meeting was presided over by the Education Minsiter of the state Mr. C. Raveendran.

The award being given by Mr. T. M. Thomas Isaac and reveived by Mrs. Pushpa John

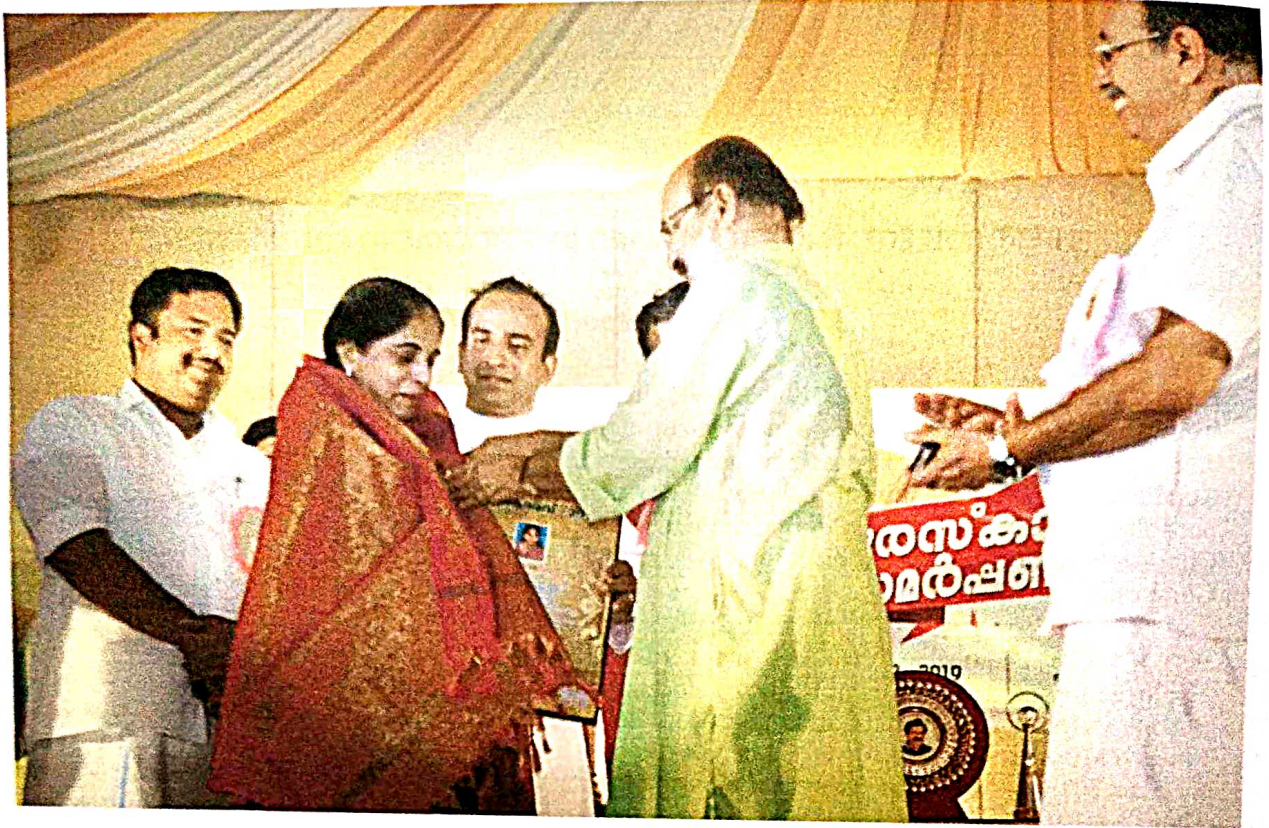

Photo of the Award

Stubs

Principal
Naipunnya School of Management
Cherthala